I understand in the event that an emergency would arise that would require medical care, use of a physician or hospitalization or surgery, I will be notified immediately. However, should camp authorities be unable to locate or not have time to contact me, they may take such temporary measures as they deem appropriate and necessary. Also, I grant permission for routine non-surgical medical care for my child. I hereby authorize the release of pertinent medical/dental information to insurance companies and I hereby authorize the insurance benefits be paid directly to the provider of medical/dental services.

By signing this Camper's Application I give my permission for the above listed medications/preparations or emergency care to be given in my absence as indicated above. I will not hold Whited Bible Camps or administering person liable for any reactions resulting from the giving of these medications or care.

All medication must be packaged in its' original container. All medications will be given by the medical staff as per instructions on the medication bottle/packaging only, as prescribed by a physician.

CAMPER GUIDE

Thank you for choosing Whited Bible Camps for your best camp experiences! We are excited to have you join us and pray your camp experience at WBC will be filled with fun and friendships and we desire for you to leave with an everlasting relationship with God. We at WBC strive to provide a safe and friendly environment for all campers and volunteer staff. All persons will need to sign in at the office and all vehicles will need to be registered upon entering the campgrounds. All WBC Youth camps are reserved for campers and volunteers only. We are a closed campus for all WBC Youth camps. For the sake of this Camper Guide, Whited Bible Camps may be referred to as WBC.

Rules & Regulations

During any scheduled camp session, all persons staying on the Campground are under the jurisdiction of the Campground Rules. This includes all daytime, evening and overnight guests. Campers are expected to conduct themselves in an appropriate manner at all times and to attend all scheduled activities. Campers who are unable to attend scheduled activities due to health reasons must provide a note with explanation by parent/guardian and their physician in writing at the time of registration.

Any noncooperative or non-compliant campers are subject to dismissal at their own expense. Parent/guardian will be responsible to provide immediate transportation if their camper is dismissed for non-compliance. Whited Bible Camps will not be responsible for any accident that might befall a camper which may be caused by neglect or non-compliance of the rules on the camper's part.

Each camper and/or their parent/guardian will be responsible for any costs that may be the result of willful or negligent destruction of camp property or another's personal property incurred by him/her.

All campers must remain on camp grounds at all times, unless formally excused by the director to depart with a parent or guardian. Any camper must have permission from the Camp Director to leave the campground for any reason after they are registered, and if under 18, camper must provide written permission to do so, from their parent/guardian at the time of registration. The director reserves the right to allow campers to leave the grounds only after obtaining verbal permission from the camper's parent/guardian. No camper is allowed in designated off-limit areas.

Summer Camp Sessions: Each camper may participate in swimming. Campers will be required to take a swim test given by the lifeguard to determine their allowed areas of swim. Campers will only be permitted at the pool or lake front with assigned volunteer staff for scheduled activities. No camper is allowed at the pool or lake area without a lifeguard present.

Winter Retreat sessions: Each camper will participate at their own risk in our winter snow sports activities which could include: Snow sledding, Skiing, Skating, Tubing, Sliding, Snow Shoeing, etc.

-No pets/ animals are allowed on the campus except for circumstances under direct permission of the camp director.

Dorms: Campers may not move from their assigned cabin to bunk in another cabin without permission. All campers will stay in assigned supervised dorms. Females are not allowed in the male dorms and/or bathrooms, males are not allowed in the female dorms and/or bathrooms. No camper is allowed outside after lights out, without supervision and only for emergency reasons. Keep your room clean, respect other campers' belongings. At the end of each camp session campers will be free to go home AFTER their room has been cleaned and approved by their counselor.

Media: WBC holds the rights to publicly use any photos, videos or audio recordings or interviews taken at any camp session/event by the WBC designated media staff to be used for promotion, including website, free of any claims, unless otherwise given notice in writing by any individual or parent/guardian.

Mail/Email: Camper mail needs to be mailed in advance to ensure arrival during the camp week. Postal mail often does not arrive to camp for several days after mailed. Mail received after camper has left camp will not be forwarded. Mail may be left at registration to be dispersed to campers on requested days. In an effort to save cost on paper and printer ink, daily emails will not be printed.

Emergencies: In case of emergency, call the office at (207)429-9731. Telephones are not available for camper use, except in case of an emergency. Under normal circumstances, campers should not be called or visited. For the safety and concern of all persons staying on the grounds, we are taking necessary steps to ensure we provide the safest environment possible for everyone and the best possible peace of mind for parents/guardians. We are a closed campus during WBC Youth events.

Emergencies cont: In the event that an emergency should arise with your camper that would require medical care, use of a physician or hospitalization or surgery, the parent/guardian will be notified immediately. However, should camp authorities be unable to locate or not have time to contact parent/guardian, Whited Bible Camps may take such temporary measures as they deem appropriate and necessary, which include permission for routine non-surgical medical care for the camper. The camper's and parent/guardian's signatures on the camper's registration application form authorizes Whited Bible Camps to release pertinent medical/dental information to insurance companies and authorize the insurance benefits be paid directly to the provider of medical/dental services.

Health: Safety is a key factor in our program planning. Adequate medical persons will be on duty for any medical needs, and lifeguards will be required to be present to supervise all swimming and water activities during all summer camps. Please do not send medication unless it is prescribed by a doctor and is in its' original container. All medications will be given by the medical person only as per instructions on the medication bottle/packaging only, as prescribed by a physician. No over the counter medications are allowed with the campers. These can be provided by camp medical person only, if deemed necessary.

Immunization Records: Campers must submit the most recent Immunization Record in order to attend camp. Campers without an Immunization Record or proper documents submitted will not be registered for camp. Any campers who declare no immunizations must complete and sign the Declaration Form. This form can be provided upon request and submitted with the camper's application.

Conduct: As a Christian organization, Whited Bible Camps maintains high standards of conduct. The use of tobacco, cannabis, vapes, alcohol or any form of illegal drugs is strictly forbidden. No profanity, disrespectful or crude conversation is to be used.

Vehicles/Parking: Any camper attending youth camps may not use his/her motor vehicle for individual service or pleasure. All motor vehicles must remain impounded on the campground property for the duration of the camp, except designated staff own personal vehicle use.

Bank: All monies are encouraged to be put in safekeeping in the "bank". Whited Bible Camps and its volunteers are not responsible for the safe keeping of camper's monies not placed in the "bank", it will be the camper's personal responsibility. All campers are allowed to have a canteen tab which is paid out of their monies. Also, daily opportunities are available to use their "bank" money for offerings at the camper's request.

DRESS CODE: WBC believes a neat and tasteful dress code set as a standard serves the best interest of our organization. A dress code is a large part of the inherent standards we uphold as an organization in our society today. All campers and volunteer staff are required to come to camp prepared to dress appropriately and within the guidelines of the WBC dress code policy. The list of clothing is not comprehensive; thus the listed items should not be considered the only excludable items under the rules of neat, tasteful, and appropriate. Use the list as a guideline to help you meet the requirements of our dress code. If you are genuinely in doubt about whether an article of clothing meets the dress code do not wear it. If you have any further questions about our dress code, please call the office.

The dress code guidelines are:

- Footwear required! Exceptions: Sleeping and swimming.
- Clothes need to be weather appropriate
- Clothes and accessories that imply themes related to sex, drugs, alcohol, tobacco, violence, vulgar language, etc., are not allowed. Accessories that are considered dangerous are not allowed.
- All tops (T's, jerseys, blouses, etc.) must be over both shoulders covering the back and in contact with pants, dresses, shorts, shirts, etc. Tops with spaghetti straps are unacceptable, no low-cut shirts. Tank top straps must be 2" in width.
- Skirts, dresses and shorts must be no shorter than the tips of your extended fingers, with arms straight and at your sides.
- Clothes must cover undergarments when standing, sitting and/or bending.
- Hats are not to be worn at any time during class, chapel service or evening service.
- Clothing that is provocative or revealing is unacceptable.

WBC administrative staff will make determinations in instances, on whether clothing is deemed to be inappropriate. Campers may be asked to change clothes or be given appropriate clothing to wear.

WHAT TO BRING:

- ✓ BIBLE, notebook & pen/pencil
- ✓ Modest swim suit (girls – one piece / boys – boxer type)
- ✓ Warm jacket/coat and sweatshirts
- ✓ Adequate clothing for camp week
- ✓ Sleeping bag/bedding, pillow, towels, and washcloths
